The Old Rugged Cross

On a hill far away stood an old rugged cross,
The emblem of suff'ring and shame;
And I love that old cross, where the dearest and best
For a world of lost sinners was slain.

*So I'll cherish the old rugged cross,
Till my trophies at last I lay down;
I will cling to the old rugged cross,
And exchange it some day for a crown.*

Oh that old rugged cross, so despised by the world.
Has a wondrous attraction for me,
For the dear Lamb of God, left His glory above,
To bear it to dark cavalry.

Refrain...

In the old rugged cross, stained with blood so divine,
Such a wonderful beauty I see.
For 'twas on that old cross, Jesus suffered and died
To pardon and sanctify me.

Refrain...

Down at the Cross

Down at the cross where my savior died,
down where for cleansing from sin I cried,
there to my heart was the blood applied;
glory to His name!

*Glory to His name — glory to His name!
There to my heart was the blood applied;
glory to His name!*

I am so wondrously saved from sin.
Jesus so sweetly abides within.
There at the cross where He took me in;
glory to His name!

Chorus

Come to this fountain so rich and sweet,
cast thy poor soul at the Savior's feet;
plunge in today and be made complete;
glory to His name!

Chorus

The Scriptures: Luke 22:39-46,

[39] And he came out and went, as was his custom, to the Mount of Olives, and the disciples followed him. [40] And when he came to the place, he said to them, "Pray that you may not enter into temptation." [41] And he withdrew from them about a stone's throw, and knelt down and prayed, [42] saying, "Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done." [43] And there appeared to him an angel from heaven, strengthening him. [44] And being in agony he prayed more earnestly; and his sweat became like great drops of blood falling down to the ground. [45] And when he rose from prayer, he came to the disciples and found them sleeping for sorrow, [46] and he said to them, "Why are you sleeping? Rise and pray that you may not enter into temptation."
